FOCUS ON PRIORITIES: Economic & Family Security

As the daughter of small business owners (I was rolling pennies at my parents' grocery store at age 5), I have a life-long understanding that small businesses and good jobs are the lifeblood of our community. That lifeblood has been severely strained by the impact of COVID-19 and must be replenished in a manner that safely brings Minnesota's economy back to life.

As your Minnesota state representative, I will prioritize:

- Obtaining pandemic relief funds for small and micro businesses neglected in initial funding efforts;
- Providing access to added funds to safely and successfully restore high quality education for all of our children;
- Assuring workplace safety standards that keep employees, customers, and their families safe from COVID-19;
- Increasing access to capital for successful re-opening of small business;
- Assuring that the recovery boosts business success as well as a living wage for workers;
- Assisting families with child and senior care via paid family and medical leave;
- Tackling what will be a slow road back with a boost in work-based development, apprenticeship, and job training policy;
- Allocating a good share of our admittedly tight resources to Minnesota's better future through investments in science and technology: research, innovation, and growth for our people;
- Assuring passage of a fiscally sound bonding bill to maintain our roads, bridges, and infrastructure.

How do my priorities compare with yours? What ideas do you have to get our economy flowing again? Click here to help me build that better future for all of us.
